THE MACJC REMEMBERS MITCH DEAVER

This 2019 MACJC master football schedule page is dedicated to the loving memory of former Pearl River Community College sports information director Mitch Deaver, who passed away on June 1, 2015. Mitch distinguished himself as a photographer, writer and graphic designer in his 19 years as Pearl River's outstanding SID. During his career, he also provided service to the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges and its member schools.

ADMINISTRATION

DR. BILLY STEWART

President

Dr. Billy W. Stewart was named the eighth president of East Central Community College (ECCC) effective July 1, 2012. A native of Pearl, Dr. Stewart earned his Bachelor of Science degree in History and his Masters of Education degree in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Southern Mississippi. While an undergraduate student at Southern Miss, he was a member of the President's Cabinet, was voted Mr. University of Southern Mississippi by his peers, and was selected for inclusion in the University of Southern Mississippi Hall of Fame. He earned his Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration from Mississippi State University in 1997. Throughout his degree programs at both the University of Southern Mississippi and Mississippi State University, he maintained a 4.0 GPA.

While at East Central, Dr. Stewart initiated a strategic planning process to shape and guide the future of the institution. As a result, 2020 Vision was adopted in February 2013 and includes a long-term desire to be nationally recognized and locally preferred while meeting the educational and training needs of all residents of the college district.

In April 2019, he received the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society's Shirley B. Gordon Award of Distinction during the society's annual convention in Orlando, Fla. PTK's Shirley B. Gordon Award is presented to college presidents who have shown strong support of student success on their campuses by recognizing academic achievement, leadership, and service among high-achieving students. Dr. Stewart was nominated for the award by student members of East Central's Theta Xi Chapter of PTK. The Shirley B. Gordon Award is Phi Theta Kappa's most prestigious award for community college presidents.

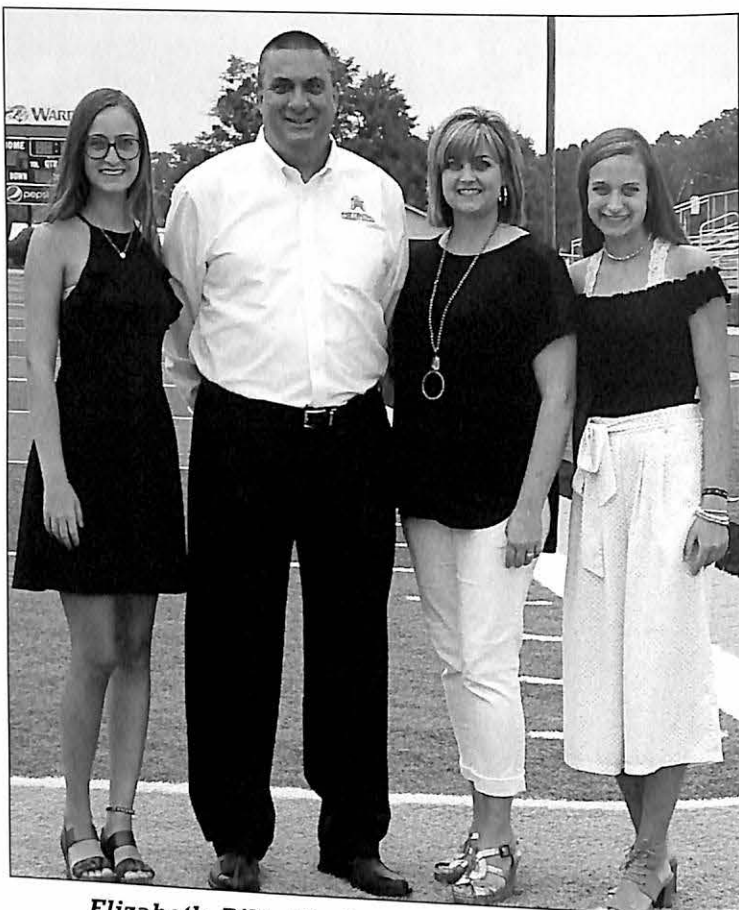

Dr. Stewart began his professional career in education at the University of Southern Mississippi where he served as a Field Representative for the Alumni Association. Following his tenure at Southern Miss, he served as a History Instructor and Assistant Girls' Basketball Coach at Pearl High School. Following a two-year stint in the classroom, he was named Assistant Principal for Discipline at Pearl High School. With a desire to expand his knowledge in educational leadership, he accepted a position as a Graduate Research Assistant in the Department of Educational Leadership at Mississippi State University and served there for three years while earning his doctorate in Higher Education Administration with an emphasis in Community College Leadership.

After earning his Ph.D., Dr. Stewart served Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson as Dean of Community Services and then Dean of the Simpson County Center. While at Copiah-Lincoln, Dr. Stewart was inducted as an honorary member of the Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society, selected as a recipient of the National Institute for Staff and Organizational Development (NISOD) Excellence in Education Award, and completed the Mississippi Community College Fellowship Program for aspiring community college leaders.

Prior to being named president of ECCC, Dr. Stewart served Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College (MGCCC) as Vice President for Administration and Finance. While at MGCCC, Dr. Stewart served as Chief Operating and Financial Officer for the college's four comprehensive campuses and four centers and administered annual budgets in excess of $100 million. He also served as Chief Personnel Officer for the college with an annual payroll in excess of $48 million. While at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, Dr. Stewart was named Administrator of the Year on two different occasions.

Dr. Stewart, a graduate of the Executive Leadership Institute (ELI) sponsored by the League for Innovation in the Community College, plays an active part in his community by serving his church and other local charitable organizations.

Dr. Stewart has been married to the former Stephanie Morris of Columbia for 27 years, and they reside on the ECCC campus. Billy and Stephanie are the proud parents of Stephen (ECCC Class of 2016), who is married to the former Louise Berryhill (ECCC Class of 2016); Will (ECCC Class of 2017 and a senior at Mississippi State University); Elizabeth (a sophomore at William Carey University); and Emily (a junior at Newton County High School).

PAUL NIXON

Director of Athletics

Paul Nixon assumed his duties as Director of Athletics at East Central Community College in June 2018.

A native of Clinton, Nixon most recently was an associate academic dean at Concorde Career College in Memphis, where he oversaw seven of the college's Allied Health programs and more than 50 faculty and staff.

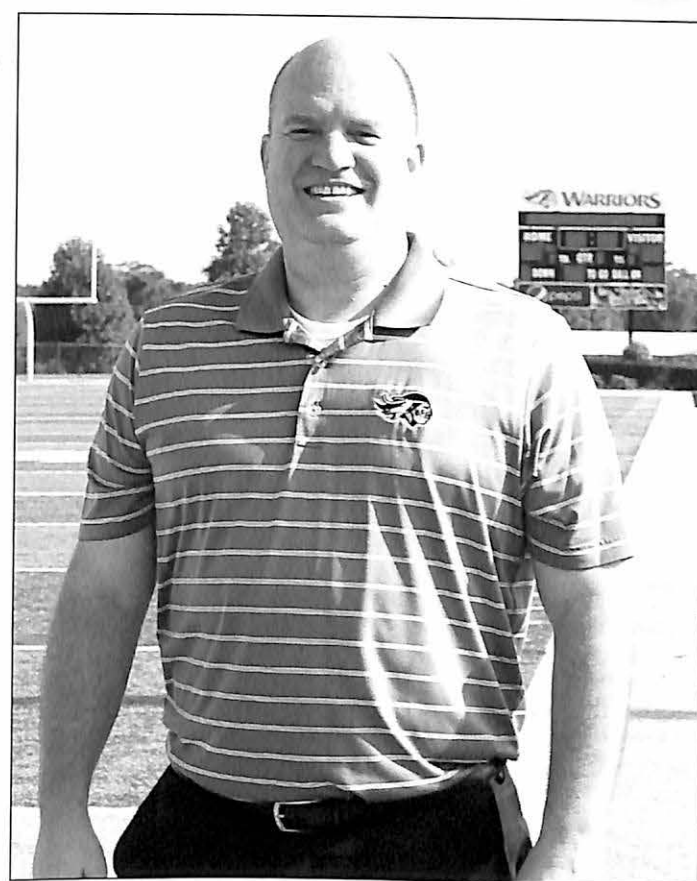

For 22 years, Nixon coached women's basketball at the collegiate level, including serving as the head women's coach at Columbia University in New York City from 2005-13. He remains the career leader in NCAA Division I wins and in conference wins at the Ivy League institution.

He also has served as the assistant women's coach at Long Island University in Brooklyn, N.Y., Indiana University in Bloomington, the University of Southern Mississippi, the University of Nevada-Reno, and Marshall University in Huntington, W.V.

Nixon is familiar with the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges, having spent a year as the assistant women's coach at Northeast Mississippi Community College in Booneville. He also spent a year as an eighth grade math teacher and assistant softball and baseball coach at Independence High School in Coldwater.

Nixon received his Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies from Vanderbilt University and his Master of Science in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation from Marshall University.

Nixon's father, Ed, was the all-time winningest women's basketball coach in Mississippi College history at the time of his retirement.

TIFFANY MORRISON

Administrative Assistant to the Director of Athletics

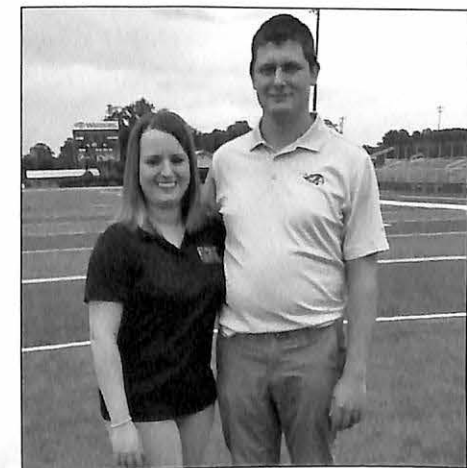

Tiffany Morrison is the administrative assistant to the Director of Athletics at East Central Community College.

Morrison is a 2013 liberal arts graduate of East Central. She also received a one-year certificate in Office Systems Technology from ECCC in 2014.

Prior to joining the Athletic Department staff, she was a student office assistant at ECCC and a coach at Miller Gymnastics in Newton.

She and her husband, Ryan, reside in Newton.

FOOTBALL STAFF

KEN KARCHER

Head Coach

Ken Karcher begins his seventh season as Warrior head football coach.

Prior to joining the ECCC staff, Karcher served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Eastern Michigan University.

His top priority remains the same as when he was announced as the college's 21st head coach during a spring 2013 press conference: Develop a winning football program at East Central Community College!

His overall record at ECCC is 22-35. The 2016 Warriors won the college's first-ever Mississippi

Association of Community and Junior Colleges South Division. The Warriors also qualified for the state playoffs for the second straight year, marking the first time in 40 years that East Central participated in postseason play in consecutive years. The 2016 team finished 5-5 on the season, losing to Northwest Mississippi Community College 21-14 in the state playoffs.

Karcher's 2015 team had the college's best season in 16 years, with an overall record of 8-3. The Warriors won the C.H.A.M.P.S. Heart of Texas Bowl and finished ranked No. 10 in the National Junior College Athletic Association Top 20 poll. ECCC advanced to the state playoffs before falling 20-14 to eventual national champion Northwest.

For his coaching efforts, Karcher was named the Mississippi Association of Coaches Community College Football Coach of the Year for both the 2016 and 2015 seasons.

Karcher led the Warriors to a 1-8 record his first year in 2013 while improving to 3-6 in the 2014 season in the toughest junior college football league in the nation.

Karcher served four seasons at Eastern Michigan, a member of the Mid-American Conference.

He is also a former head coach at Liberty University, where he succeeded EC alumnus Sam Rutigliano.

Karcher began his coaching career in 1991 at North Texas State University, where he coached quarterbacks and wide receivers.

He was hired the following season by Head Coach Galen Hall as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Orlando Thunder of the World League of American Football.

After the World League was suspended, Karcher returned to the collegiate ranks as an assistant on Johnny Major's coaching staff at the University of Pittsburgh. During his first season, he served as the Panthers' pass offense coordinator and quarterbacks coach, sharing duties with run offensive coordinator Charlie Coe.

In March 1994, Majors put Karcher in sole charge of the offense, promoting him to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He held that position for the next three years, until Majors' resignation at the end of the 1996 season.

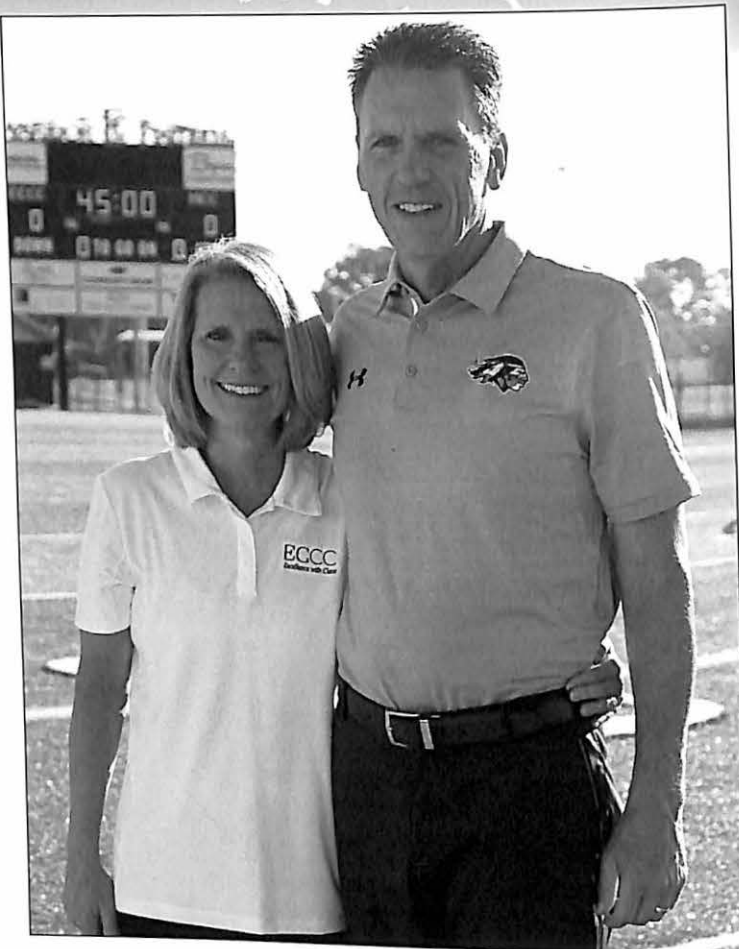

In 1997, Karcher rejoined Galen Hall in the revamped World League, this time as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach of the Rhein Fire, based in Dusseldorf, Germany.

He helped lead the Fire to their first winning season in the team's three-year history. Rhein finished in first place with a 7-3 record but lost to the Barcelona Dragons in World Bowl IV. Under Karcher's tutelage, quarterback T.J. Rubley earned All-World League honors and was named the league's most valuable offensive player.

Karcher's offense led the league in rushing yards (1555) and ranked second in total offense (3253). The offensive line set a league record by holding opponents to only one sack the entire regular season.

Karcher was chosen the sixth head football coach at Liberty

Pauline and Ken Karcher

University on February 18, 2000.

He served six seasons at Liberty, compiling an overall 21-46 record and 6-8 mark in conference play, including two straight second-place finishes.

Karcher continued his career in 2006 as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Fellowship Christian High School in Roswell, Ga., where he helped lead the Paladians to their first-ever winning season and a deep run in the Georgia state playoffs. He also served as the school's athletic director and taught a ninth-grade Bible class at Fellowship Bible Church.

In 2008, Karcher was named quarterbacks coach at the University of Toledo. He helped lead the Rockets in an upset win over the Michigan Wolverines, although the squad finished 3-8.

Karcher was hired in January 2009 by head coach Ron English as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Eastern Michigan University and remained with the program until December 2012.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Karcher was a highly recruited quarterback at Shaler Area High School where he was selected a Parade All-American in 1980. He continued his athletic career at the University of Notre Dame where he was a backup to Blair Kiel. After two years he transferred to Tulane University, where he completed his collegiate playing career.

He later continued his career in the National Football League as a member of the Denver Broncos and played as a replacement player when other NFL players were on strike. The Broncos retained him for the rest of the year, and Karcher was a back-up for John Elway when the team played in Super Bowl XXII in 1988.

He holds a bachelor's degree from Tulane and a master's degree from Global Grace Seminary.

Karcher is married to the former Pauline Termini and they have four children, daughters Kelly and Katie, and sons Austin and Clay, and four grandchildren.

MICKEY MAYS

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers Coach

Mickey Mays, who has 35 years coaching experience on the high school, college, and professional levels, begins his sixth season at ECCC and his second as defensive coordinator. He previously served as defensive line coach/run game and special teams coordinator.

He began his career in 1982 as a secondary coach at Milan High School in Milan, Tenn. His high school coaching experience also includes stints as secondary coach at Humboldt (Tenn.) High School (1985); head coach at Chester County High School in Henderson, Tenn. (1990-91), where he was named 1991 District Coach of the Year; head coach at Cordova (Tenn.) High School; and defensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Sequatchie County High School in Dunlap, Tenn.

Mays entered the collegiate coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at the University of Tennessee-Martin (defensive ends) in 1986, then Memphis State University (offensive line/tight ends) in 1987-88, and Louisiana State University (running backs) in 1989.

He coached on both sides of the ball during a six-year stint at the University of Texas-El Paso (1993-98). He was part of the 1996 defense (linebackers' coach) that ranked No. 2 in total defense in the 16-team WAC Conference.

Mays was a member of Coach Karcher's staff at Liberty University from 2003-05. Under Mays' leadership, the special teams scored six touchdowns in 2004 and was ranked seventh nationally in net punting in 2005.

Mays was later named defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at Charleston Southern University in Charleston, S.C., serving from 2006-07. The squad registered a school record nine victories and led the Big South Conference in defensive sacks in 2006.

He served as defensive line and punt team coach for the Orlando Thunder of the World League of American Football in 1992, when the squad won the Eastern Division title and finished World Bowl runners-up.

Mays served in 2008 as offensive and defensive line coach for Arena Bowl Champion Philadelphia Soul, which set a franchise record for victories (16) and team sacks. He also served as director of player personnel.

Prior to joining the ECCC staff, Mays served as defensive assistant with the Virginia Destroyers of the United Football League in 2012.

A native of Adamsville, Tenn., Mays is a 1977 graduate of Humboldt (Tenn.) High School. He received a bachelor's degree from Rhodes College in Memphis in 1981 and earned a master's degree in education administration from the University of Memphis in 1989.

DENNIS ALEXANDER

Offensive Line Coach/Run Game Coordinator

Dennis Alexander begins his sixth season as an assistant football coach at East Central Community College. He serves as offensive line coach and run game coordinator.

Prior to joining the ECCC coaching staff, the former University of Alabama football standout served as offensive line coach and run game coordinator at Shades Valley High School in Irondale, Ala.

Alexander served from 2010-13 as head football coach and head track coach at Bessemer City High School in Bessemer, Ala.

He served a brief stint in 2009 as offensive line coach for the semi-pro Birmingham Wildfire.

Alexander began his coaching career as offensive line assistant coach and substitute teacher at Jess Lanier/Bessemer City High School, from 2007-10.

A standout lineman, Alexander played professional football on two teams - first with the NFL's Tennessee

Titans in 2004 followed by a stint with Cologne Centurions in the NFL Europe league from March 2005 to December 2006.

Alexander won numerous honors as a member of the University of Alabama Crimson Tide squad from 1999 to 2003.

He was named to the Freshman All-American and Freshman All-SEC teams for the 2000 season and received the "Jerry Duncan's Like to Practice Award" the same year.

Alexander served as co-captain in 2002-03 and was awarded the "Paul Crane Most Improved Offensive Lineman Award" for the 2003 campaign.

The Memphis native received a four-year athletic scholarship to attend the University of Alabama following a stellar career at Westwood High School in Memphis, where he received First Team All-Metro, First Team All-State and Second Team All-South honors.

Alexander received a bachelor's degree in family financial planning from the University of Alabama in 2003. He completed additional coursework in 2004.

He is currently pursuing a bachelor's degree in kinesiology at the University of Montevallo.

He is married to the former Niva King of Columbus. They have three sons, Dennis Alexander III, Javin King and Jemarcus King and a daughter, Kristian.

Niva, Kristian, Dennis III, and Dennis Alexander

2019 ECCC FOOTBALL

MIKE JONES

Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs & Tight Ends Coach

Mike Jones, who has coached at the high school and college levels and in the NFL Europe and Canadian Football League, begins his second season on Ken Karcher's staff and his first as offensive coordinator. He also coaches running backs and tight ends.

Jones most recently was a teacher and assistant football coach at Lake Minneola High School in Minneola, Fla. Prior to that he was the offensive coordinator at Tennessee State University in Nashville for five seasons.

In 2009, Jones was the wide receivers coach for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

From 1998 to 2007, he coached for the Frankfurt, Germany, franchise of the National Football League Europe. As head coach from 2004-07, he led the Galaxy to the 2006 World Bowl Championship and was named NFL Europe Coach of the Year.

A native of Chattanooga, Tenn., he played wide receiver at Tennessee State. Jones was a sixth round draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1983 and played six seasons in the NFL.

Jones received his bachelor of arts in interdisciplinary studies from Tennessee State.

He and his wife, Minerva Jones, have three children: daughters Bridgette Vasquez and Brittany Vasquez, and son Chandler Jones.

Mike and Minerva Jones

RUDY GRIFFIN

Former University of Alabama defensive lineman and longtime high school and college football coach Rudy Griffin is in his first year as defensive line coach at East Central Community College.

A native of Hepzibah, Ga.,

Griffin was a two-year starter at defensive tackle for Alabama defenses that were ranked No. 1 in the NCAA in total defense in both 2005 and 2006. Griffin's honors during his time as a member of the Crimson Tide included receiving the team's Billy Neighbors Award for most improved defensive lineman, being named team captain for the 2006 Cotton Bowl win over Texas Tech, and being selected for the Southeastern Conference All-Academic Honor Roll.

He was named SEC Player Week when Alabama defeated Mississippi State 17-0 in Starkville on Nov. 5, 2005. Griffin returned an interception 17 yards for a touchdown in the game.

Prior to playing for Alabama, Griffin was a two-year starter for The Citadel in Charleston, S.C.

From 2014-19, Griffin has served as defensive coordinator and school district community relations coordinator at Hewitt-Trussville, where he helped guide the Huskies to five straight playoff appearances, including Alabama Class 7A State Quarterfinal appearances in each of the past three seasons. Hewitt-Trussville produced 15 NCAA Division I scholarship signees during that time and had 18 players named All-State, more than the total named All-State in the previous 91-year history of football at the school.

During his tenure as a football coach, Griffin has also served as defensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coach at National Junior College Athletic Association member Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas; linebacker coach and recruiting coordinator at NCAA Division I Idaho State University in Pocatella; football quality control and assistant recruiting coordinator at NCAA Division I Washington State University in Pullman; defensive coordinator and linebackers coach and head track and field coach at Demopolis High School in Alabama; defensive line and strength and conditioning coach at Worth County High School in Sylvester, Ga.; and defensive line and strength and conditioning coach at NAIA program Dakota State

Defensive Line Coach

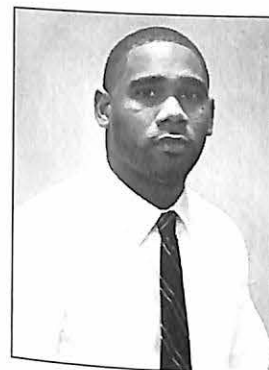

Kimiko and Rudy Griffin

University in Madison, S.D.

Griffin holds a bachelor's degree in human performance from the University of Alabama.

DEVIN FOSSELMAN

Volunteer Wide Receivers Coach

Devin Fosselman begins his third season as volunteer wide receivers coach for the ECCC Warriors.

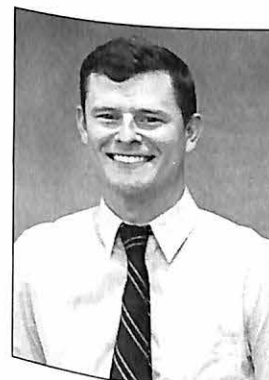

Prior to joining Coach Karcher's staff, he was tight ends and strength and conditioning coach at Jackson State University. He has also coached wide receivers at Jackson State, as both the interim wide receivers coach and as a graduate assistant. Fosselman was a volunteer wide receivers and quarterback coach at Wilkinson High School in Woodville from 2012-16.

A wide receiver as a player, Fosselman lettered for Mississippi State University in 2011 and played in the Music City Bowl. He also played for Pearl River Community College in Poplarville, where he was team captain in 2012. Fosselman finished his playing career at Jackson State where he was a three-year starter at wide receiver and the team's most valuable offensive player in 2015. He was invited to the Seattle Seahawks' Rookie Camp in 2015. Fosselman received an associate degree from Pearl River, and a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies and a master's degree in sports management from Jackson State.

DREW DUNN

Volunteer Cornerbacks Coach

Drew Dunn is in his first season as volunteer cornerbacks coach for the Warriors. He most recently was defensive graduate assistant for the University of South Alabama Jaguars in Mobile, Ala.

A native of Brandon, Dunn was a four-year football letterman at Northwest Rankin High School before attending the University of Mississippi. While at Ole Miss from 2011-15, he worked with the football equipment staff and was an assistant to the coaching staff, including the Rebels' cornerbacks and linebackers coaches. The Rebels participated in the BBVA Compass Bowl, Music City Bowl, Peach Bowl, and Sugar Bowl during his tenure in Oxford.

In 2016, Dunn joined the football coaching staff at South Alabama as a defensive graduate assistant, where again he worked with defensive backs and linebackers among other duties. The Jaguars participated in the 2016 Arizona Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Mississippi in 2015 and is currently working on his master's degree in Educational Leadership.

BAILEY McELWAIN

Volunteer Safeties Coach

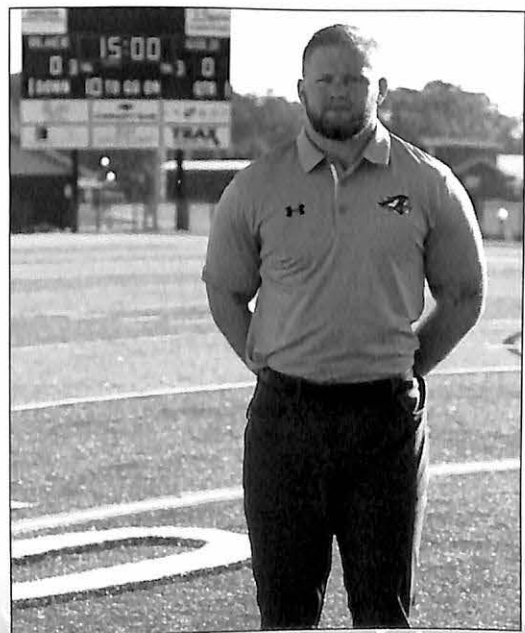

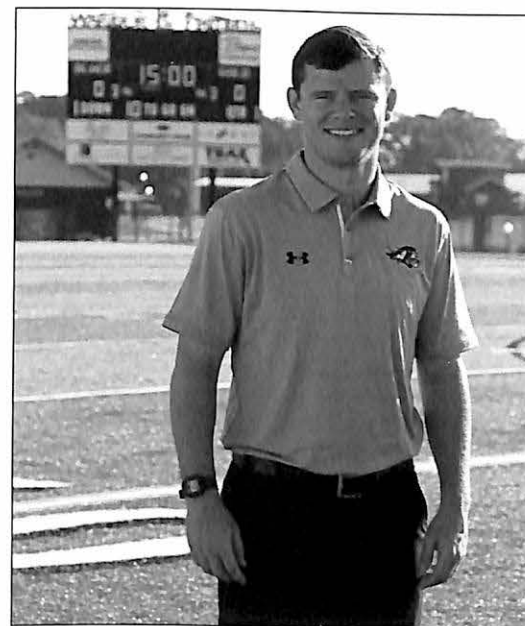

Bailey McElwain begins his first season as volunteer safeties coach for the ECCC Warriors.

Prior to joining Coach Karcher's staff, he played at Vanderbilt University where he competed for one season before enduring a career-ending neck injury. After joining the Vanderbilt football staff as volunteer fullbacks coach for a year, McElwain made a move to Birmingham where he completed his degree at UAB in general studies with a double minor in psychology and history.

As a player, McElwain started 13 games as a true freshman for the Vanderbilt Commodores in 2016, where he finished the season with two touchdowns and served as a key blocker for the school's all-time leading rusher. In the same season, the team reached the Camping World Independence Bowl.

Most recently, McElwain spent a spring at Hewitt-Trussville High School in Alabama as linebackers coach, working under current ECCC defensive line coach Rudy Griffin.

2019 ECCC FOOTBALL SEASON PREVIEW

For the first time since 2017, the East Central Community College football Warriors will play more games at home than on the road as Head Coach Ken Karcher will rely on a mixture of proven returners and talented newcomers in a quest to return to the postseason after a two-year absence.

It will be how the Warriors fare in those home games in Decatur that will determine their postseason fate.

"It's important for our football team that we win our home games," said Karcher, who has led the Warriors to the playoffs twice in the past four seasons. "We must approach each game strategically and be who we are, and not try to be a team we are not. And we must eliminate dumb mistakes. If we do those things and win our home games, then we have a chance."

The 2019 regular season opens on Thursday, Aug. 29, at 6:30 p.m. when East Central entertains the Northwest Rangers in Bailey Stadium in Decatur.

The Warriors return four starters on offense and five on defense from the 2018 squad that finished 4-5 overall and 3-3 in the MACJC South Division. Nine starters from last season are playing at four-year colleges and universities this fall.

"We lost some good, quality football players from last year's team," said Karcher. "But we are expecting big things from some of our returning players, and we had a strong signing class this year and we expect some of those new players to contribute early."

Returning on offense is MACJC First Team All-State wide receiver Jaylen Zachery. The product of Thurgood Marshall in Dayton, Ohio, had 27 catches for 396 yards and four scores a year ago. Ray Thomas is back at tight end. The Senatobia native had eight receptions and one touchdown in his freshman season.

"We feel very good about our receiving corps this season," noted Karcher. "Between the returning players and the newcomers, we should be strong in this area."

Karcher said the quarterback competition has yet to be settled, with two freshmen vying for the starting nod. Holman Edwards, a 6-2, 205-pound signal-caller out of French Camp Academy, and 6-3, 235-pound Deonte Yarbrough from Louisville are both getting reps under center in the preseason.

"Both of these guys can be very good quarterbacks in this league," said Karcher.

Karcher hopes sophomore Marq Qualls (Lake) can fill the shoes of last year's work horse James Smith III. Smith III, who is playing for the University of West Alabama this season, rushed for 872 yards and had another 138 yards receiving.

Other big shoes to fill on offense will be tackle Ethan McMullan, now at the University of North Alabama, and wide receiver/returner Kevontaye Caston, who will play for Prairie View A&M this fall. Caston had 1,114 all-purpose yards last year while averaging nearly 30 yards per kick return.

On defense, the Warriors return five starters, including two key players from last year's defensive front that helped contribute to 27 sacks in nine games. Defensive tackle Alvin Dempsey (Port St. Joe, Fla.) and defensive end Ronnie Thomas (Clinton) are both back. Dempsey totaled 40 tackles, six and a half sacks, and seven tackles for a loss last season. Freshman Joshua Ratcliff out of Assumption High School in Napoleonville, La., is expected to step in alongside Dempsey and Thomas.

Sophomore linebackers Elijah Keyes (Mize) and Payton Rogers (Forest) and cornerback Fred McGee (Greene County) all saw extended playing time last season and return for the defense.

Karcher said he is counting on three freshman defensive backs to contribute early and help offset the departure of two-time NJCAA All-Region 23 and MACJC First Team All-State safety Keonte' Daniels, who signed with Mississippi Valley State University. Tra'Jen Anderson (North Forrest, Hattiesburg), Anthony Thomas (Stringer), and Jaeden Webb (Northwest Rankin) are all expected to get early playing time with McGee in the defensive secondary.

Both kicking specialists from last season return, but are being pushed for their starting jobs by a newcomer. Punter Steven Anderson (Purvis) and placekicker Sam Cox (Starkville Academy) handled most of the kicking duties in 2018. However, freshman punter/kicker Robens Beauplan (Lehigh Acres, Fla.) created a three-way battle for playing time as the season opener approaches.

"We feel good about where we are with our kicking game for this season," Karcher noted. "The competition between these young men is making each of them better, and we will have some tough decisions to make as we get ready for the first game."

East Central also has new faces on the coaching staff this fall. Former University of Alabama defensive lineman and defensive coordinator at Hewitt-Trussville High School in Alabama Rudy Griffin will coach defensive lineman. Brandon native Drew Dunn, who was a defensive graduate assistant at both the University of South Alabama and Ole Miss, will coach cornerbacks. Former Vanderbilt fullback and Hewitt-Trussville linebackers coach Bailey McElwain will coach safeties for the Warriors.

In addition, second year coach Mike Jones has added offensive coordinator duties and Dennis Alexander, who is in his sixth season on Karcher's staff, has added run game coordinator to his duties as offensive line coach.

"We have a very experienced staff in one sense, and a quality young group of coaches who have joined us," Karcher said. "They are all committed to the same mission, are great teachers, and love these kids," Karcher said.

For the second year in a row, East Central faces the most difficult schedule in the MACJC. In addition to the season opener against Northwest, the Warriors play all four playoff teams from a year ago, including road games at Copeiah-Lincoln, East Mississippi, and Jones. East Central will also travel to Southwest, as well as host Itawamba, Pearl River, Gulf Coast, and Hinds.

WARRIOR HALL

Construction began in November 2018 on the new Warrior Hall football operations center.

The estimated $2.6 million, 12,300-square-foot facility will be located just outside the north end zone of Warrior Field at Bailey Stadium.

The facility is expected to be ready for use when the spring terms begin in January 2020.

Warrior Hall will contain locker rooms for players and for coaches, a team meeting room, position conference rooms, coaches' offices, an equipment room, a players' lounge, and a laundry room.

It will also house a state-of-the-art training room to be used by student-athletes in all nine varsity sports at the college.

The architect for Warrior Hall is Eley Guild Hardy Architects of Biloxi. The contractor is J&J Contractors Inc. of Collinsville.

WALL O' SOUND BAND

ED GIRLING DIRECTOR OF BANDS/ PERCUSSION INSTRUCTOR

Ed Girling begins his fourth year as director of bands after previously serving as interim director of bands. He has more than 30 years experience having served as band director for several area high schools.

Girling has served as past president of the East Central Mississippi Band Directors Association, past president of the Mississippi Private School Association, and founder and former director of Scott County Honor Band.

He is a graduate of Pass Christian High School, and received BM, ME and Master's of Music Education degrees from Delta State University.

He and his wife, Karen Girling, who serves as band director at Carthage High School, have one daughter, Anna.

ZACH LANGLEY ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF BANDS

Zach Langley is in his first year as assistant director of bands at ECCC. He previously served seven years at Northeast Jones High School, including three years as assistant director of bands and the last four years as director of bands. In addition, he served as director of bands at Nettleton High School for two years.

A graduate of Booneville High School, Langley studied at Northeast Mississippi Community College, where he was a member of the Tiger Marching Band. He received a Bachelor of Music Education from the University of Mississippi, where he served in the University of Mississippi Wind Ensemble and was a member of the "Pride of the South" Marching Band. He received a Master's in Music Education from William Carey University, where he served as the adjunct trombone professor.

Langley was nominated and served on the board of directors for the Southeast Mississippi Band Directors Association from 2016 to 2019. Under his direction, the Northeast Jones "Tiger Pride" Marching Band represented the state of Mississippi in the 2017 National Independence Day Parade in Washington, D.C.

He and his wife, Lindsey, have three children: Abbey, Nate, and Olivia.

STACY SANDERS COLOR GUARD COORDINATOR

Stacy Sanders begins her third year as the Wall O' Sound color guard coordinator.

She is in her ninth year as the head band director at Newton County High School with 11 years total at the school.

Sanders attended Delta State University where she earned a bachelor's degree in music education.

She resides in Philadelphia.

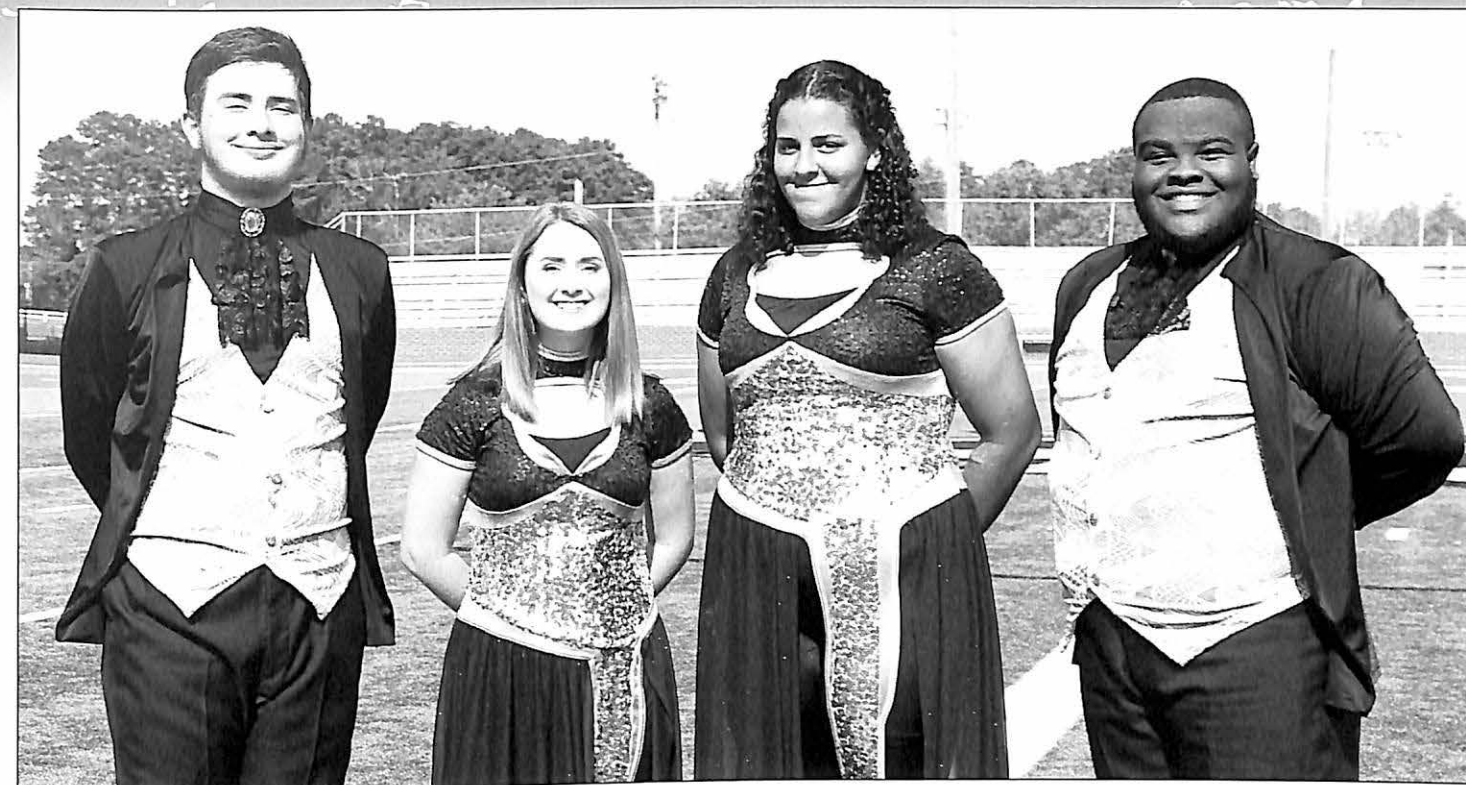

TAYLER STEPHENS CENTRALETTES COORDINATOR

Taylor Stephens is in her second year as coordinator of East Central's Centralettes dance line.

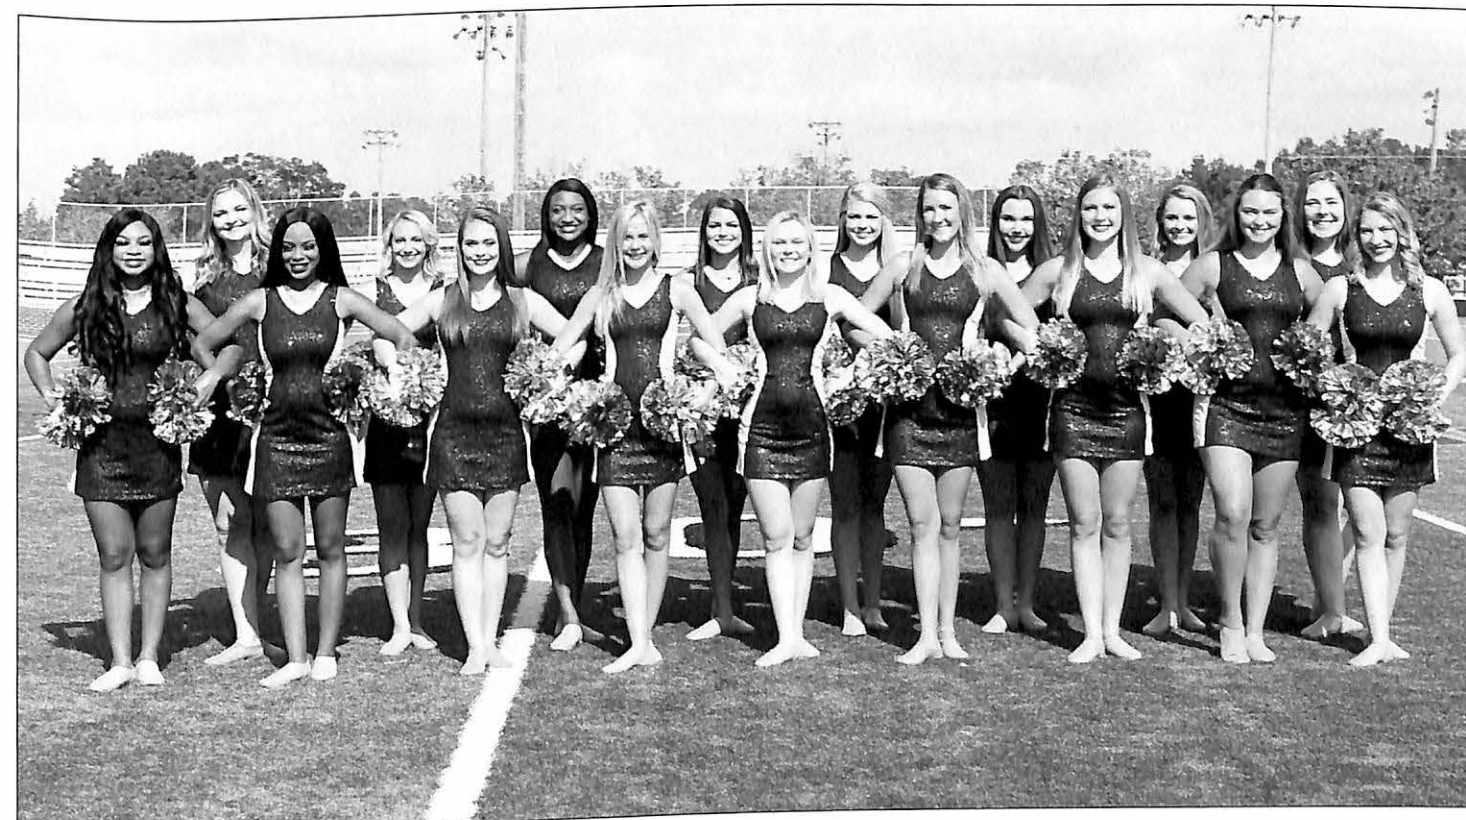

She resides in Laurel and works for Pine Belt Mental Health. Stephens graduated from Mississippi State University with a degree in psychology.

She is the mother of Kaia Leigh Stephens. She has been associated with teaching dance for over eight years.

THE MACJC REMEMBERS MITCH DEAVER

This 2019 MACJC master football schedule page is dedicated to the loving memory of former Pearl River Community College sports information director Mitch Deaver, who passed away on June 1, 2015. Mitch distinguished himself as a photographer, writer and graphic designer in his 19 years as Pearl River's outstanding SID. During his career, he also provided service to the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges and its member schools.
